

The Lower Salford Historical & Folklife Society invite you to

Hecklerfest

Saturday, August 22, 2026

10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Morris & Landis Roads, Harleysville, PA

(Off Routes 63 and 113)

- ◆ Demonstrations of Colonial Crafts including butter churning, Long Rifles, Blacksmithing, Harness & Leather Work, Colonial Limner (artist), Rug Hooking, Wooden Spoon-making, Tobacconist, Tape Loom Weaving, Spinning and Weaving and others.
- ◆ Hands-on craft stations where visitors will practice colonial handcrafts - Scherensnitte (scissor cutting), Quilting and Tin Punching
- ◆ 1800s farmhouse and 1761 barn open for tours and demonstrations
- ◆ Colonial-era Privateer Historians
- ◆ Colonial Tavern
- ◆ Colonial Cooking / Pies baked in the outdoor 1700s bake oven
- ◆ Colonial Children's Games

Admission: Donation to the Lower Salford Historical & Folklife Society to be used for restoration/maintenance of the barns, houses and bake oven.

The Heckler Farmstead is located at the intersection of Morris and Landis Roads (off Routes 63 and 113) in Harleysville.

The physical address is 237 Landis Road, Harleysville, PA.

Information can also be found on our Heckler Plains Facebook page.

For information call 215-822-7422 (evenings).